Report

Training on Community Seed Bank under LANSA Farming System for Nutrition
Borgaon Gondi, Wardha
Date: November 11, 2017

Objective:
- Provide technical knowledge on seed management.
- Provide technical Knowledge for running Community Seed Bank.
- Experience sharing on Community Seed Bank.

Resource Persons
- Chanda Kamble, Member, Community Seed Bank, Paloti.
- Ujwala Nagrale, Member, Community Seed Bank, Paloti.

Activities:
- Women from all FSN villages visited Community Nutrition Garden (CNG).
- Interaction with other village women regarding CNG.
- Vegetables cultivation and management of work discussed.
- All women visited Community Seed Bank.
- Discussed on available seed and varieties of seed.
- Anjali Baraee introduced the guests and conducted the programme.
- Chanda Kamble addressed on collection of seed, safe seed storage, household level seed processing, and traditional method of seed storage.
- Ujwala Nagrale lectured on management of Community Seed Bank.
- Chanda Kamble and Ms. Ujwala Nagrale shared their own experience on how to run seed bank.
- Hema Madavi, Community Resource Person (CRP) gave the vote of thanks.

Women discussing on CSB   Chanda Kamble addressing on seed storage

Meeting in progress   Hema Madavi, CRP giving vote of thanks

Participation:

28 people from Saheli, Bitpur, Susund, Heti and Borgaon Gondi villages participated in the training programme.

This included the three Community Resource persons and village volunteers:

S. N.	Name	Village
1.	Fakirchand Khandate	Village Volunteer, Saheli
2.	Gautam Yesankar	Village Volunteer, Susund
3.	Sudhir Kumre	Village Volunteer, Borgaon
4.	Surekha Uike	Bitpur
5.	Rupali Warathi	Susund
6.	Hema Madavi	Borgaon Gondi

Field Staff:

S. N.	Name	Village
1.	Rupal Wagh	Research Associate MSSRF, Wardha
2.	Anjali Baraee	Project Assistant, MSSRF, Wardha
3.	Vikas Meshram	Project Assistant, MSSRF, Wardha

Women observing CNG   Usha Kaurati explaining about CNG

Reported by: Rupal Wagh